

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

New Christian Church.
The Christian church people have decided to build at once on their lot Bishop Funsten returned this morning.

It has been decided by the congregation to put up a cheap frame structure now, preparatory to the erection of a $20,000 structure later on. The plans adopted are for a frame building 20x40 in size. Sunday school room 20x40 is cut off in such a way that it can be added to the main room by drawing a curtain.

The temporary structure will not cost to exceed $1500 and it is intended to have it completed and occupied before spring.—Boise Capital News.

Great Sale of Blankets.
J. P. Wilbur, superintendent of the Union Woolen Mills, closed a deal Thursday by which a great sale was made. Twenty-seven thousand dollars worth of white blankets were sold to one Boston firm. This is the largest individual sale ever made by the Union Woolen Mills or, for that matter, by any woolen mills of the Northwest. Two other orders have also been received of recent date involving $3000 each.—La Grande Observer.

New Episcopal Church.
Bishop Funsten returned this morning from Bruneau, where he was looking after a flourishing mission. He said this morning that he expected to soon commence the building of a church where services could be held regularly. He said that there was a great deal of interest being taken in the mission which he hoped would result in building up the membership in that community.—Boise Capital Herald.

Eminent Lawyer Dead.
M. D. Grover, for 18 years the general counsel of James J. Hill's railroad enterprises, died at St. Paul Sunday, and will be buried there Wednesday. The deceased was one of the foremost corporation lawyers of the West, and was a prominent figure in all the Northern Securities Company litigation.—Spokane-Review.

New Shops and Round House.
The work of installing the machine shops and round house for the Sumpter Valley railroad at South Baker is progressing very rapidly at this time, and from those employed on the ground it appears that the premises will be ready for use in a comparatively short time.—Baker City Herald.

Yakima Water Contract.
The city council tonight passed an ordinance granting a 30-year franchise to the Northwest Water & Light Co. The company agrees to put in a gravity system that will bring water from 10 miles up the Naches river.—North Yakima Republic.

Trial of Razer.
Circuit court convenes in this city Thursday to try the case of the State vs. Razer, charged with the murder of Ben Ross near Elgin this last spring. There have been a number of witnesses subpoenaed and it is expected the case will last several days.—La Grande Observer.

Box Cars Robbed.
Thieves broke open three Northern Pacific box cars here last night and stole a large amount of merchandise consigned to North Yakima merchants. The thieves have not been apprehended.—North Yakima Republic.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR HORSES

Wanted—One hundred head of unbroken horses. I am located for the winter at the Dutch Henry feed yard, corner of Alta and Lilith streets, where I conduct a first-class training and sale stable. If you want to buy a horse I will take your order and select the best horse for you, or if you have a horse to sell I am well acquainted with the best buyers. I am well equipped to break and handle any horse from the finest blooded stock to the wildest and most desperate broncho. There is no horse but can be broke and be made to drive or work nicely if he be handled correctly. I have broke one hundred and twenty-three head in Pendleton, some of which had become desperadoes. I guarantee satisfaction in every case.
